

I am opposed to the proposed new rules which would allow further monopolization of broadcast and print media. The FCC is charged by law to serve the public interest: it violates the tenets of a free democratic society to allow half a dozen large companies to control our media.